Text-to-world connections. Text-to-world connections are just as they sound—you need to make connections to the world around you. And even though sometimes we all feel like the world centers around us, when you make text-to-world connections, you shouldn't only focus only on your world.. The world can be anything from life inside your dorm room to life in another country.

Etymology. Fourth World follows the First World, Second World, and Third World classification of nation-state status; however, unlike the former categories, Fourth World is not spatially bounded, and is usually used to refer to size and shape which does not map onto citizenship in a specific nation-state. It can denote nations without a sovereign state, emphasizing the perceived non ...
